Explore Kenya

Watamu is a small coastal town in Kenya, north of Mombasa. It's known for Watamu Marine National Park and Reserve, which has 3 bays: Watamu, Blue Lagoon and Turtle Bay. Sandy beaches and coral gardens are the defining features. Seabirds, as well as green and hawksbill turtles, inhabit Mida Creek with its sand flats and mangrove forest.

Inland Arabuko-Sokoke Forest Reserve is home to elephants, monkeys and rare birdlife. Only 3 hours from Watamu, also the Tsavo East National Park is one of main attractions for Safari experience.
